The Humble

ADDRESS

Of the Right Honourable the

Lords Spiritual and Temporal

In Parliament Aſſembled.

Die Jovis, 19 Novembris, 1702.

WE Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Aſſembled, humbly take leave to Repreſent to Your Majeſty, That it is the Undoubted Right of every Lord of Parliament, and of every other Subject of England, to have an Opportunity of making his Defence, before he Suffer any ſort of Puniſhment: And therefore humbly Deſire Your Majeſty, That You will be Pleaſed not to Remove the Lord Biſhop of Worceſter from the Place of Lord Almoner, nor to ſhew any Mark of Your Diſpleaſure towards him, 'till he be found Guilty of ſome Crime by due Courſe of Law.

Die Veneris 20 Novembris, 1702.

Her Majeſties moſt Gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs.

I Agree, That every Peer and Lord of Parliament, and indeed every other Perſon ought to have an Opportunity of being heard to any Matters Objected againſt him, before he be Puniſhed.

I have not yet Received any Complaint of the Biſhop of Worceſter; but I look upon it as My Undoubted Right, to Continue or Diſplace any Servant Attending upon My Own Perſon, when I ſhall think proper.

IT is Reſolved and Declared by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Aſſembled, Nemine Contradicente, That no Lord of this Houſe ought to Suffer any ſort of Puniſhment, by any Proceedings of the Houſe of Commons, otherwiſe than according to the Known and Ancient Rules and Methods of Parliament.
